Giraffe Murals

aka Girafics

by muralist Dan Fontes

Come celebrate...

the restoration of an Iconic work of Public Art.

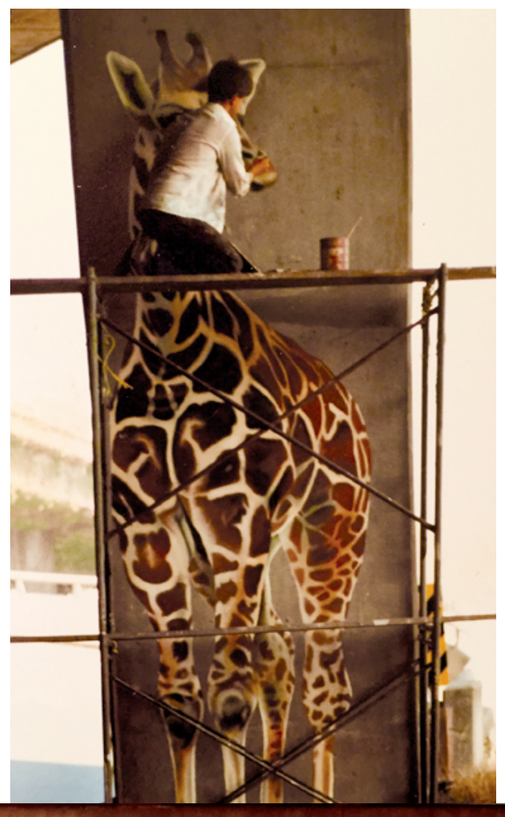

Oils on Concrete and Steel beneath the 580 freeway near Harrison Street exit and Oakland Avenue, Oakland.

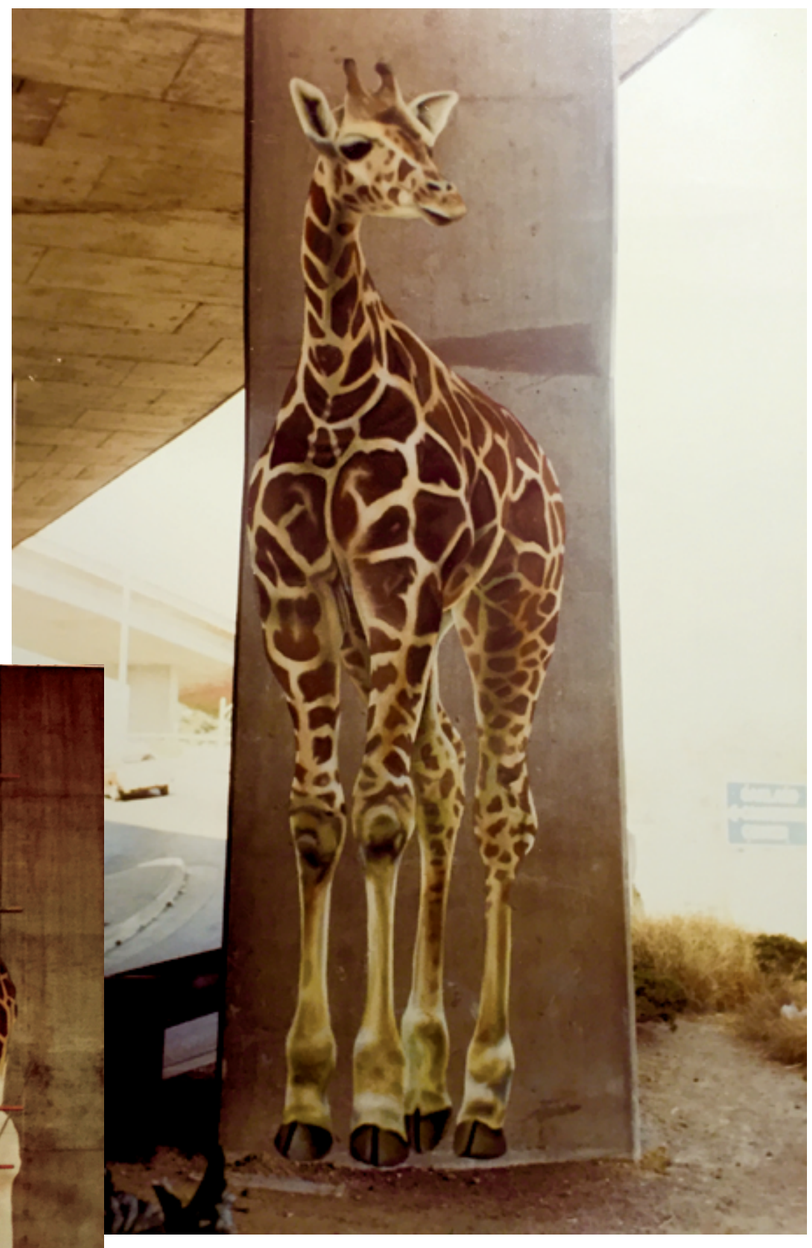

Celebrate Earth Day with Oakland's Giraffe Murals originally painted in 1983-84.

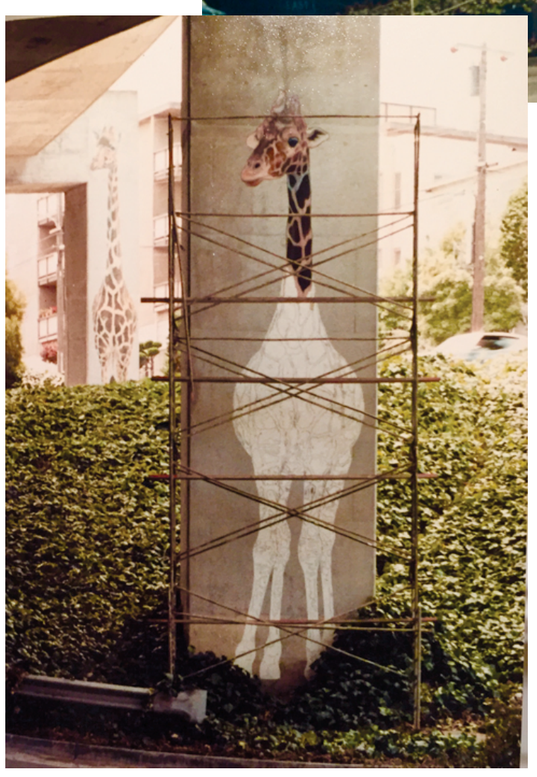

Partially restored in 1994. Fully restored in 2017.

Special thanks to the hundreds of people who have donated, volunteered and assisted to make this project possible.

Originally funded by the Oakland Office of Community Development, further thanks to Lizz Milota and John Cascio, Kristi Holohan (painting assistance). With original zoo photography by Rick Mannshardt. Thanks to St. Leo's school for the use of their auditorium. Originally developed in cooperation with Cal Trans. Special thanks to Dan Galvez, Angeli Crawford, Julie Lucchesi and GoFundMe. Tons of gratitude to Helen "Be" Babalis for poster design, and again, mom and dad, William and Marian Fontes. Photos by both Dan Fontes and Rob Perica (RobPerica.com).
